A CAPSULE HISTORY OF THE MAINE JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

Until the signing of the Articles of Agreement for Separation in 1820, Maine was a part of Massachusetts and, therefore, Maine's court system was a part of the Massachusetts court system.

In 1820, Article VI, Section 1, of the new Maine Constitution created by the Legislature established the judicial branch of government stating: "The judicial power of the State shall be vested in a Supreme Judicial Court, and such other courts as the Legislature shall from time to time establish". From the start of statehood, the Supreme Judicial Court was both a trial court and an appellate court of "Law Court". The new State of Maine also adopted the same lower court structure as existed in Massachusetts, and the court system remained unchanged until 1852.

The Court Reorganization Act of 1852 increased the jurisdiction of the Supreme Judicial Court to encompass virtually every type of case, increased the number of justices to seven and authorized the justices to travel in circuits.

The next major change in the system came in 1929, when the Legislature created the statewide Superior Court to relieve the overburdened Supreme Judicial Court.

Meanwhile, the lower courts continued to operate much as they always had until 1961 when the municipal courts and the trial justices system was abolished and the new District Court created.

On July 1, 1978, the Administrative Court was added to the Judicial Department.

The Probate Courts were created in 1820 as county-based courts and have remained so to date.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT AND LAW COURT

The Supreme Judicial Court is the highest court in Maine, and as the Law Court is the court of final appeal. The Law Court hears appeals of civil and criminal cases from the Superior Court, appeals of decisions of certain administrative agencies, interlocutory criminal appeals, and appeals of decisions of a single justice of the Supreme Judicial Court. A justice of the Supreme Judicial Court has jurisdiction to sit in the Superior Court to hear non-jury civil actions, except divorce or annulment of marriage. In addition, a single justice handles post conviction habeas corpus and both admission to the bar and bar disciplinary proceedings.

The justices of the Supreme Judicial Court make decisions regarding legislative apportionment and render advisory opinions concerning important questions of law and on solemn occasions when requested by the Governor, Senate or House of Representatives. Three members of the Supreme Judicial Court serve as the Appellate Division for the review of sentences.

The Supreme Judicial Court has seven members; the Chief Justice and six Associate Justices. The justices must be lawyers and are appointed by the Governor for seven year terms, with the consent of the Legislature. The court determines the number, time and places of its terms depending on the volume of cases. Usually, the court sits in Portland.

By statute, the Chief Justice is head of the Judicial Department, and the Supreme Judicial Court has general administrative and supervisory authority over the Judicial Department.

Upon retirement, a Supreme Judicial Court justice may be appointed an Active Retired Justice by the Governor, for a seven year term, with the consent of the Legislature. On assignment by the Chief Justice, an Active Retired Justice has the same authority as an active justice.

SUPERIOR COURT

The Superior Court was created by the Legislature in 1929 as Maine's trial court of general jurisdiction. This means the court has original jurisdiction over all matters (either exclusively or concurrently with other courts) which are not within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Judicial Court sitting as the Law Court or within the exclusive jurisdiction of the District Court. This is the only court in which civil and criminal jury trials are held. The Superior Court is the Supreme Court of Probate and, therefore, is the first appeal court for probate cases. In addition, justices of this court hear appeals from District Court in some criminal, juvenile and divorce cases, and appeals from the Administrative Court.

There are 14 justices of the Superior Court who hold sessions of the Court in each of the 16 counties. The justices must be lawyers and are appointed by the Governor for seven year terms, with the consent of the Legislature. For administrative purposes, the State is divided into three regions, and the Chief Justice appoints a Regional Presiding Justice for each region.

Upon retirement, a Superior Court justice may be appointed an Active Retired Justice by the Governor for a seven year term, with the consent of the Legislature. On assignment by the Chief Justice, an Active Retired Justice has the same authority as an active justice.

DISTRICT COURT

The District Court was created by the Legislature in 1961 as Maine's court of limited jurisdiction. The court has original jurisdiction in non-felony criminal cases and ordinance violations, can accept guilty pleas in felony cases and conducts probable cause hearings in felony cases. The court has concurrent jurisdiction with the Superior Court in divorce cases and civil cases involving less than $20,000. The District Court is the small claims court (for cases involving less than $800) and the juvenile court. In addition, the court hears mental health, forceable entry and detainer, quiet title and foreclosure cases.

There are 20 judges of the District Court; the Chief Judge who is appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court, five judges-at-large who serve throughout the state, and 14 judges who sit within the 13 districts of the court. The judges must be lawyers and are appointed by the Governor, for seven year terms, with the consent of the Legislature.

Upon retirement, a District Court judge may be appointed an Active Retired Judge by the Governor for a seven year term, with the consent of the Legislature. On assignment by the Chief Judge, an Active Retired Judge has the same authority as an active judge.

ADMINISTRATIVE COURT

The Administrative Court was created by the Legislature in 1973 and is a statewide court. Prior to July 1, 1978, the Court had jurisdiction over suspension and revocation of licenses by a specific list of executive agencies.

Effective July 1, 1978, the Legislature substantially expanded the jurisdiction of the Administrative Court. Now, other than in emergency situations, the Administrative Court has "...exclusive jurisdiction upon complaint of an agency or, if the licensing agency fails or refuses to act within a reasonable time, upon complaint of the Attorney General, to revoke or suspend licenses issued by the agency, and shall have original jurisdiction upon complaint of a licensing agency to determine whether renewal or reissuance of a license of that agency may be refused...".

There are two judges of the Administrative Court; the Administrative Court Judge and the Associate Administrative Court Judge. The judges must be lawyers and are appointed by the Governor for seven year terms, with the consent of the Legislature.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE COURTS

The Administrative Office of the Courts was created in 1975.

The office is directed by the State Court Administrator who is appointed by and serves at the pleasure of the Chief Justice. Staff for the Adminstrative Office is appointed by the State Court Administrator, with the approval of the Chief Justice, and includes the following permanent positions:

State Court Administrator
Regional Court Administrators (5)
Fiscal Director
Accountant
Accounting Clerks (2)
Secretary

By statute, the office was created to serve the entire Judicial Department in the areas of caseflow management, statistics, facilities, personnel, training, liaison, systems management, fiscal management, budget, complaints, Judicial Conference and general support staff. These duties are enumerated in 4 M.R.S.A. §17 and are performed under the supervision of the Chief Justice.

FISCAL

All expenditure and revenue data are reported for the State fiscal year ended June 30, 1979. The Judicial Department operates on State general fund revenues which are appropriated by the Legislature. It also administers several small projects funded by grants from public or private sources.

Expenditures

Judicial Department expenditures for FY 1979 totaled $8,671,806, which is an increase of 15.1% over the previous year. The following is a summary of expenditures by Department subdivision:

Subdivision	FY 1978	FY 1979	% Change
Judicial Council	7,077	4,938	(30.2)
Supreme Judicial Court	794,076	933,718	17.6
Superior Court	3,268,550	3,410,121	4.3
District Court	3,203,608	3,808,764	18.9
Administrative Court	- 0 -	131,716	----
Administrative Office	233,915	233,636	0.0
Special Projects	29,370	148,913	507.0
Total	$ 7,536,596	$ 8,671,806	15.1

The expenditure summary includes a new court for the first time this year. Effective July 1, 1978, the Administrative Court was removed from independent status and placed within the Judicial Department.

Also this year for the first time, we have shown the Judicial Council expenditures separately from those of the Supreme Judicial Court.

Statutory payments to County Law Libraries as in prior years have been included in the Superior Court expenditures, as have expenditures of the Select Commission on Professional Responsibility, the Committee on Judicial Responsibility and Disability, and the Sentencing Institute.

Special Projects which were administered during the fiscal year were as follows:

Court Mediation	$ 7,084
Non-Judicial Personnel Education	6,810
Judicial Personnel Education	10,132
Facilities Study	70,426
Facilities Study Implementation	7,263
Law Library Study	2,759
Development of a Code of Professional Conduct	4,862
Personnel System Refinement	7,188
Committee on Judicial Responsibility & Disability	1,221
Grant to the National Center for State Courts	1,800
Court Planner	29,368
Total	$148,913

Three new projects have been initiated since June 30, expenditures for which will be reflected in the 1980 report. They include a Study of the Law Court Jurisdiction, a Juror Utilization and Management Study, and a grant to provide a staff support to the Administrative Office of the Courts.

Following are three charts. Chart 1 shows the proportion of total FY 1979 Judicial Department expenditures for each department subdivision. Chart 2 shows the proportion of total FY 1979 State operating expenditures for each of the three branches of government. Chart 3 shows the proportion of total Judicial Department FY 1979 expenditures for each funding source.

Revenue

Judicial Department revenue for FY 1979 totaled $6,861,283. Listed below is a source breakdown of that revenue for FY 1978 and FY 1979 and the percent change.

	FY 1978	FY 1979	Percent Change
Superior Court Fees and Fines	$ 440,393	$ 446,282	1.3
District Court Fees and Fines	5,331,311	6,202,686	16.3
Administrative Court Fees and Fines	- 0 -	57,986	----
Special Project Grants	62,448	154,329	247.1
Total	$5,834,152	$6,861,283	17.6

All Judicial Department revenue, except grant money, is deposited in the General Fund. However, some of the revenue from each trial court is dedicated to State and local agencies. Below is a list of agencies receiving dedicated revenue from the Superior Court in FY 1979.

1. Inland Fisheries and Wildlife
2. Marine Resources

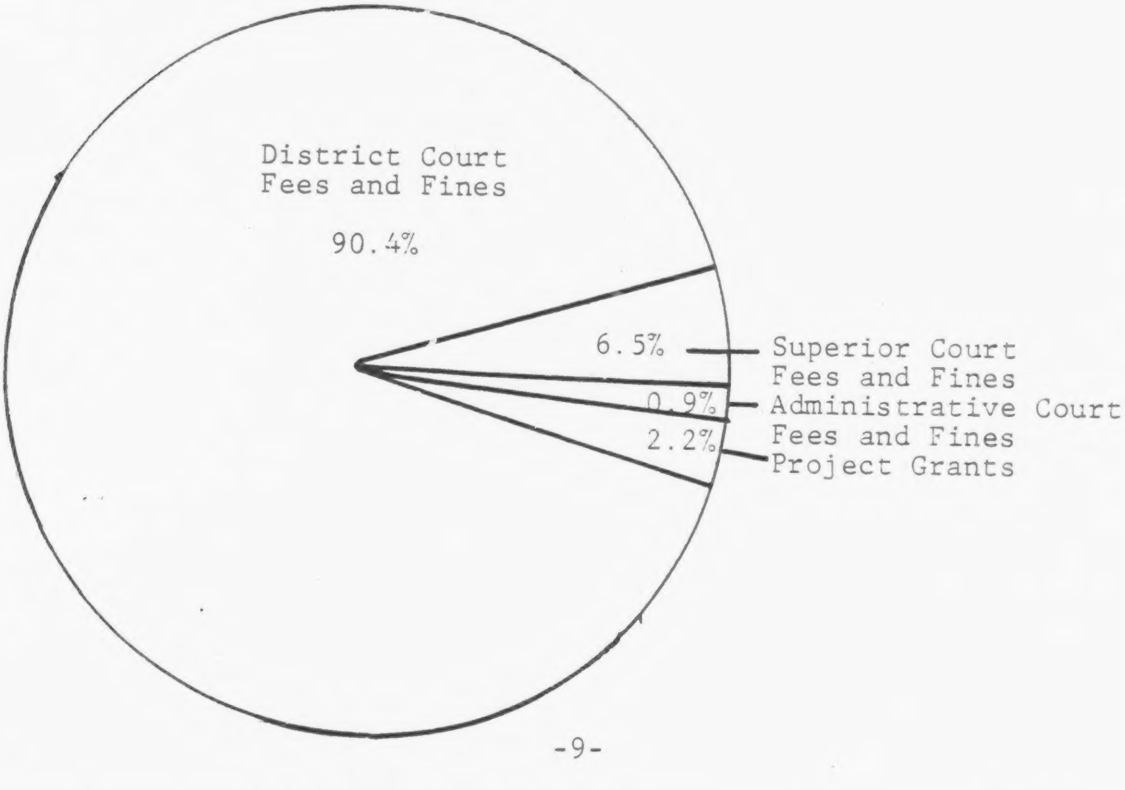
Below is a list of agencies receiving dedicated revenue from the District Court:

1. Agriculture
2. Conservation
3. Forestry
4. Health and Welfare
5. Inland Fisheries and Wildlife
6. Marine Resources
7. Municipalities
8. Public Utilities Commission
9. Transportation

Effective January 1, 1979, Marine Resources fines were no longer dedicated to the Department of Marine Resources. They went into the General Fund.

Monies received for grants are dedicated in the sense that the funds provided are "dedicated" to a specific project and cannot be allocated elsewhere.

The following chart shows total Judicial Department FY 1979 revenues by proportion from each source.



District Court Building Fund

Pursuant to 4 M.R.S.A. §163 (3), $3,000 per month is transferred from the District Court appropriation to the District Court Building Fund. This fund is "to be used solely for the building, remodeling and furnishing of quarters for the District Court....". Monies in this fund are carried forward from year to year.

The balance forwarded from fiscal year 1978 was $97,779. The addition of $36,000 for fiscal year 1979 brought the total available funds to $133,779. Of this amount, $128,246 was spent during the year for major renovations at the Calais and Bath District Courts, for a new roof on the Springvale District Court, and miscellaneous smaller items, leaving a year-end balance of $5,533.

FACILITIES

An in-depth analysis of court facilities was completed in 1979 by consultants to a court committee headed by Justice James P. Archibald of the Supreme Judicial Court.

On July 20, 1979, Governor Joseph E. Brennan, at the request of Chief Justice Vincent L. McKusick, appointed a Select Commission on Court Facilities. Its twelve members, representing a cross-section of affected interests, adopted the findings of the Archibald Committee as to need, estimated the cost of accomplishing the seven most critical projects at $12 million, proposed general obligation bonds of the State for funding that cost, recommended close coordination between the Bureau of Public Improvements and the Judicial Department in addressing the problems of court facilities, and urged that funding of a statewide court system should be from the State General Fund or other State sources.

In partial implementation of the Commission's recommendations, two bills were submitted in the Second Session of the 109th Legislature. Legislative Document No. 1985, a resolve for a constitutional amendment authorizing three successive bond issues in the total amount of $12 million, won approval in amended form, authorizing a single issue of $4 million, subject to referendum on November 4, 1980. A companion bill, Legislative Document No. 1983, failed of passage. It would have phased out the payment by the counties to the State general fund for support of the courts and phased in state responsibility for the operating expenses of those portions of county buildings occupied by the Superior and Supreme Judicial Courts.

COUNTY LAW LIBRARY STUDY

During 1979, the Advisory Committee on County Law Libraries chaired by Active Associate Justice Thomas E. Delahanty continued work on reorganization and improvement of the county law library system under a grant from the Maine Criminal Justice Planning and Assistance Agency. The report of the consultant hired by the Committee to review current library structure and inventories was received early in the year. With the assistance of Penelope Hazelton, librarian at the University of Maine Law School, the Committee developed preliminary individual recommendations for the county law libraries based upon the consultant's findings. The final complete recommendations are expected to be made to the Chief Justice sometime in 1980 along with proposed legislation.

Also during 1979, the 109th Legislature made a supplemental appropriation of $25,000 to the Judicial Department to be spent at the discretion of the libraries. With the assistance of the Administrative Office of the Courts, the Committee quantified the unpaid obligations of the county law libraries, and dispersed the funds equitably among them for the purpose of reducing the identified obligations.

PERSONNEL SYSTEM

A major revision of the Personnel System Manual of the Judicial Department was undertaken in 1979 and continued well into 1980. Publication and use of the revised manual will follow approval of new materials that address the evaluation of employee performance.

A grant from the Maine Criminal Justice Planning and Assistance Agency was awarded during 1979 to provide a personnel and education officer, with special responsibility for the Department's more than 250 classified employees. Delay in final federal funding prevented actual recruitment of this officer until 1980.

The Appeal Board for the court personnel system was established in 1976, pursuant to the Maine Court System Policies and Procedures Manual promulgated by the Supreme Judicial Court. The Board is comprised of three judges, two clerks of court, an official court reporter and a regional court administrator. During 1979, the Board sustained one appeal that had been pending at the end of 1978. Another appeal, initiated in 1979, was still pending at year-end, but denied two months later.

TRIAL COURT ADMINISTRATION

During the spring and summer of 1979, the Advisory Committee on Court Management and Policy studied the structure of regional court administration in the state. The regional system at that time consisted of four regional court administrators who worked with three regional presiding justices, and had responsibilities in both the District and Superior Courts. After careful study and review, the Committee recommended that the number of administrators be increased to five, and that their functions be separated by court; three administrators would be responsible only for the Superior Court, while two administrators would supervise District Court operations. These recommendations were adopted by the Supreme Judicial Court and were implemented in October, 1979.

In 1977, the Chief Justice and the Chief Judge of the District Court joined the monthly meetings of the Regional Presiding Justices of the Superior Court, the State Court Administrator and the Regional Court Administrators. The monthly meetings now encompass all trial court operations and their purpose is to discuss trial court operation problems, seek internal solutions to those problems and direct implementation of the course of action determined by the group.

The Administration team meets as required with the Advisory Committee on Court Administration headed by Charles H. Abbott, Esq. In addition, the group meets with staff of the Department of Mental Health and Corrections, court reporters and others involved with court operations to address and resolve the problems raised.

COURT FORMS COMMITTEES

The Superior Court Civil Forms Committee completed its review of all civil forms, and 20 revised forms were printed and distributed to all Superior Courts. The only civil forms not reissued during 1979 were URESA forms, drafts of which have been prepared for issuance during 1980.

During 1979, the Superior Court Criminal Forms Committee, revised and reissued forms relating to mental health examinations and commitments.

The District Court Civil Forms Committee prepared a new set of forms, which should be printed and distributed during 1980.

The District Court Criminal Forms Committee reviewed and revised 25 criminal forms, 5 of which are pending, while 20 have been printed and distributed.

The judges, regional court administrators, and clerks serving on these committees have spent considerable time on the research and revision of these forms. In many instances, forms have been consolidated or eliminated and new forms have been written. Their recommendations are reviewed by the Regional Presiding Justices (Superior Court forms) and Chief Judge Danton (District Court forms) as well as other interested judges and clerks, so that the final forms are as accurate and responsive as possible.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT COMMITTEES

There are 14 functional committees within the Judicial Department. The purpose of these committees is to assist the Chief Justice, the Supreme Judicial Court and the Chief Judge of the District Court in carrying out their respective responsibilities.

Membership of the committees include judges, lawyers, and private citizens. Below is a list of the committees subdivided by appointing authority:

Chief Justice

Committee	Chairman
Advisory Committee on Court Management and Policy	Associate Justice Sidney W. Wernick
Advisory Committee on County Law Libraries	Active Retired Associate Justice Thomas E. Delahanty
Committee on Court Appointed Counsel	Associate Justice Harry P. Glassman

Board of Overseers of the Bar	Franklin G. Hinckley, Esq.
Committee on Judicial Responsibility and Disability	Colin C. Hampton

District Court

Committee	Chairwoman
Court Policy and Advisory Committee	Judge Harriet P. Henry

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON COURT MANAGEMENT AND POLICY

The Advisory Commitee on Court Management and Policy, consisting of one Associate Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court as Chairman, two Justices of the Superior Court, the Chief Judge of the District Court and one additional District Court judge, has continued its work throughout 1979 in the area of court planning. An in-depth study of the small claims process was completed and specific recommendations have been made to the Supreme Judicial Court. In addition, a thorough revision of the Small Claims Act has been submitted to the Legislature for its consideration. A study of the judges' pension plan was also completed. In 1979 the committee has undertaken studies of the bail system as well as the grand jury system, and has in addition studied the problem of delay in the first court appearance of incarcerated persons.

THE BOARD OF OVERSEERS OF THE BAR

In November, 1978, the Supreme Judicial Court established the Board of Overseers of the Bar which registers all Maine attorneys, performs a disciplinary function by investigating complaints involving the Bar and making recommendations to the Supreme Judicial Court, and administers an arbitration system to resolve fee disputes. The Board's first Annual Report to the Supreme Judicial Court appears as Appendix V of this document.

COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND DISABILITY

The Committee on Judicial Responsibility and Disability was established by order of the Supreme Judicial Court of Maine in July, 1978, and is authorized to receive and investigate complaints of judicial misconduct and disability. The Committee's second Annual Report to the Supreme Judicial Report appears as Appendix VI of this document.

JUDICIAL CONFERENCE OF MAINE

The Second Maine Judicial Conference was held on May 8-10, 1979 in Rockport. Pursuant to 4 M.R.S.A. §471, the conference is composed of all Maine judges and justices, "who shall advise and consult with the Supreme Judicial Court and the Chief Justice on matters affecting the administration of the Judicial Department...".

The Conference began with an opening address by Arthur M. Mason, Chief Administrative Judge of the Massachusetts Judicial System, followed by a panel discussion entitled "New Developments in Maine Divorce Law" led by Judge Harriet P. Henry. The afternoon closed with Senate Chairman Samuel W. Collins, Jr. and House Chairman Barry J. Hobbins of the Joint Standing Committee of the Judiciary discussing current legislation of interest to the Judiciary. The dinner session was concluded with an address by the Honorable Frank M. Coffin, Chief Judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit.

During the morning of the second day, an evidence seminar prepared by the National Judicial College was presented by Judge Ernst John Watts, Dean of the National Judicial College; Peter L. Murray, Esq., Maine Resource Person; and University of Oklahoma Law Center Professor Leo H. Whinery. The afternoon included an address by Maine Governor Joseph E. Brennan, as well as a seminar on hearsay exceptions led by Judge John J. McNaught of the U.S. District Court in Boston, Massachusetts.

Group workshops and a plenary session consumed the morning of the last day, followed by the closing luncheon address on the issue of Federal-State Relations given by Justice Robert Braucher, Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court.

JUDICIAL EDUCATION

The Judicial Department continued its existing policy of actively promoting judicial education through funds provided by the Maine Criminal Justice Planning and Assistance Agency. Maine judges attended the following seminars:

(1) Three District Court judges, and one Administrative Court judge attended a General Jurisdiction Court Seminar at the National Judicial College.

(2) One Administrative Court judge attended an Administrative Law Seminar at the National Judicial College.

(3) One Superior Court justice attended a Civil Litigation Seminar at the National Judicial College.

(4) One Superior Court justice and three District Court judges attended the Seventh Annual New England Judicial Conference.

(5) One District Court judge attended the 1979 Annual Meeting of the American Bar Association.

(6) One District Court judge attended a seminar sponsored by the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges.

(7) One Supreme Court justice attended the American Bar Association Appellate Judges Seminar.

NON-JUDICIAL TRAINING

One training session for all District and Superior Court clerks was held on August 16, 1979 in Bangor. This session was conducted by Personnel Consultant William Richards with the assistance of the regional administrators and State Court Administrator, and was devoted solely to the implementation of the new personnel evaluation system. The funding for the session was received from the Maine Criminal Justice Planning and Assistance Agency.

SUPERIOR COURT STATISTICAL REPORTING SYSTEM

The Superior Court statistical reporting system, established in 1977, was further refined during 1979. The major focus during 1979 was to improve the overall accuracy of the information submitted by court clerks. In addition, several meetings were held with Central Computer Services staff to resolve problems arising in the system, minor changes were made in the 12 reporting programs, and the reporting programs began production on a quarterly basis for use for caseflow management.

Superior Court statistics appear in Appendix II of this report.

DISTRICT COURT STATISTICAL REPORTING SYSTEM

Owing to budget and staff limitations, the District Court statistical reporting system remains a completely manual system. The information submitted monthly by court clerks details filings and dispositions, and is tabulated by Administrative Office of the Courts staff. It is anticipated that the District Court system will be further refined during 1980.

District Court statistics appear in Appendix III of this report.

ADMINISTRATIVE COURT STATISTICAL REPORTING SYSTEM

A limited statistical reporting system was developed for the Administrative Court during July, 1978. The Court's statistics reflecting 1979 caseflow appear in Appendix IV of this document.

LEGISLATURE

During 1979, the Administrative Office of the Courts continued to provide information to individual legislators, the Joint Standing Committees and the Legislative Finance Office. Included were fiscal impact statements, budget information, statistical information, court procedure information, information on the structure and operation of the court system and various analyses.

MAINTAIN LIAISON

The Administrative Office of the Courts continues to maintain active working relationships with many Executive Branch agencies and the legislature. Pursuant to a change in policy by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, the Chief Justice , one Superior Court justice and the State Court Administrator serve on the Board of the Maine Criminal Justice Planning and Assistance Agency.

Within the court system, members of the Administrative Office of the Courts' staff are in constant contact with justices, judges, court reporters and clerks' office staff, in order to assist in improving court system operations wherever possible.

INVESTIGATE COMPLAINTS

Every complaint addressed to the Administrative Office is investigated and a response made. In the area of public service, this is a very important function for the Administrative Office of the Courts.

APPENDIX I

LAW COURT STATISTICS

The statistical reporting system for the Law Court was instituted in 1976. Some of the categories were revised in 1977, but valid comparisons may be made between the items of major interest. Table 1 reports the Law Court case information for 1979. Table 2 compares the significant categories for the years 1979, 1978, 1977 and 1976. Table 3 pertains to the Appellate Division of the Supreme Judicial Court. During 1979, the Appellate Division of the Supreme Judicial Court consisted of Justices Archibald (Chairman), who was replaced by Justice Roberts; Justice Delahanty, who was replaced by Justice Glassman (Chairman); and Justice Nichols.

TABLE 1

Section I includes information on cases pending, cases filed and cases disposed. The categories of interlocutory appeals (usually appeals by the State pursuant to 15 M.R.S.A. §2115-A) and reports (pursuant to M.R.Civ.P. 72, and, less often, M.R.Crim.P. 37A) are of interest primarily with regard to the frequency with which procedural devices other than appeal are used to invoke Law Court jurisdiction. Once in the Law Court, these cases are handled substantially the same as other appeals.

Section II shows the number of cases originating in each county. The counties with the largest filings were Cumberland with 71 or 20%, York with 46 or 13%, and Penobscot with 44 or 13%

Section III reports the means of disposition of cases. Cases decided by signed opinions are generally more difficult and time-consuming than cases decided by the shorter per curiam and memorandum decisions.

Advisory or "solemn occasion" opinions are answers of the justices of the Supreme Judicial Court in response to questions propounded by the Governor, House, or Senate pursuant to Me. Const. Art. VI, §3.

The categories of "appeals denied" and "appeals dismissed" generally consist of cases in which the court's opinion addresses the merits of the issues raised on appeal. When it becomes apparent, after submission to the Court, that a case is not within its jurisdiction or is not in a procedural posture making it appropriate for appellate review on its merits, the mandate generally orders that the case be dismissed or remanded. Note that appeals which were sustained in part and denied in part were counted as sustained.

Non-opinion dispositions accounted for 103 dispositions in 1979. Included in this category are miscellaneous dispositions which required relatively little "judge time."

Section IV contains the pending case information. Cases "not yet at issue" are those in which both briefs had not yet been filed and which, therefore, were not ready for consideration by the Law Court. Cases "at issue awaiting oral argument" were those which the Court heard at its first 1980 term. Cases "orally argued awaiting opinion" are the most important in the pending category as they represent work to be done carried over from 1979 to 1980.

TABLE 2

This table compares the caseflow of the past four years. The figures are abstracted from the 1976, 1977, 1978 and 1979 annual statistical reports and are largely self-explanatory. The increase in pending and new civil cases in 1978 may be affected in part by a January, 1978 rules change which brings the typical civil appeal into the Law Court's docket in about 70 days from judgment in Superior Court rather than about 130 days under the former rules.

This table shows pending, filing and disposition case information for the Appellate Division of the Supreme Judicial Court.

Although the information is available, a comparison of the 1976, 1977, 1978 and 1979 figures is not included in this report because the figures have remained virtually unchanged from year to year in each category.

APPENDIX II

SUPERIOR COURT

CIVIL CASE STATISTICS

The Superior Court statistical reporting system was inaugurated in 1977. Tables 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 show and compare Superior Court filings, dispositions, trials and caseflow during 1978 and 1979.

TABLE 1

This table shows filings and dispositions for the state and each county and includes the percent of increase or decrease compared with the previous year's filings and dispositions. In this table, "refilings" are cases which were returned to the Superior Court for further action after having been disposed: e.g., cases remanded for new trial by the Law Court, motions to amend judgments and motions for contempt.

Analysis of these tables reveals the following:

1. Statewide, in 1979, civil filings increased less than 1% compared to a 1% increase in 1978.

2. Filings increased in seven counties. The largest increases were reported in Knox, Androscoggin and Washington counties with 23%, 13% and 7% respectively.

3. Filings decreased in nine counties. The largest decreases were reported in Oxford, Lincoln, Aroostook, and Waldo counties with 18%, 13%, 11% and 10% respectively.

4. Statewide in 1979, civil case dispositions decreased less than 1% compared to a 15% increase in 1978.

5. Seven counties reported an increase in dispositions with Sagadahoc, Washington and York counties reporting 56%, 24% and 16% respectively. Dispositions decreased in six counties with Lincoln and Aroostook counties reporting decreases of 30% and 28% respectively.

6. The Superior Courts pending caseload at the end of 1979 is 7% higher than at the end of 1978. Three counties, Somerset, Sagadahoc, and Oxford showed a decrease in pending caseload. Among the remaining counties, Androscoggin and Franklin counties reported increases of 28% and 21% respectively.

TABLE 2

This table shows filings and dispositions for each county by type of case and includes state totals. URESA cases are included in this table. In this table "other" includes Rule 80B appeals, quiet titles, declaratory judgments, and injunctions.

Analysis of this table reveals:

1. Statewide, in 1979, there were 7913 total cases filed compared to 8017 total filings in 1978. This 1% decrease is due to a change in the manner in which Habitual Offender cases are filed. These cases were no longer being filed in Superior Court as of March 2, 1979, when they were taken over by the Secretary of State. If Habitual Offender filings are excluded in a comparison of the filings for the two years, the filings in 1979 are 7806 and the filings in 1978 are 7446. This represents an increase in filings of 4.8% in 1979.

2. Statewide there were 7010 dispositions in 1979 compared to 6899 dispositions in 1978. This represents a 1% increase in total dispositions in 1979. If Habitual Offender cases are excluded in a comparison of the dispositions for the two years, the dispositions in 1979 are 6814 and the dispositions in 1978 are 6503. This represents an increase in dispositions of 4.8% in 1979.

3. In 1979 there were 1416 URESA cases filed compared to 1481 filed in 1978. This represents a 4% decrease in filings. In 1979 URESA cases represented 17.9% of all civil filings.

This table shows the number of civil jury and jury waived trials for each county and includes state totals. In addition, the table shows the number of jury and jury waived trials as a percent of total dispositions.

Analysis of this table reveals:

1. Statewide, 2% of all civil dispositions were by jury trial in both 1978 and 1979.

2. Statewide, 3% of all civil dispositions were by jury waived trial. This compares to last year's figure of 5%.

3. In 1979 there were 349 civil trials of which 147 were jury trials and 202 were jury waived trials.

4. Civil jury trials averaged 1.9 days and civil jury waived trials averaged .9 days.

TABLE 4

This table compares the 1978 and 1979 dispositions by type of disposition. The table includes both a numerical and percentage comparison by type of disposition for each year.

Analysis of this table reveals:

1. Statewide, 41% of all civil dispositions were by settlements, stipulated judgments or Rule 41(a) dismissals. This compared to a 38% total in 1978.

2. Statewide Rule 41(b) dismissals comprised 11% of the civil dispositions. This compares to an 8% total in 1978.

3. 19% of the dispositions in 1979 were "final orders." These orders are issued in cases such as habitual offender, URESA's and infant settlements.

TABLE 5

This table shows time lag figures for significant steps in the movement of a civil case through the Superior Court. This report shows the actual number of cases that fall within five time periods, 0-60 days, 61-120 days, 121-180 days, 181-240 days and 240 days and up.

Analysis of this table reveals:

1. In 1979, 63% of Superior Court civil cases were pre-tried within 120 days from filing of the first pre-trial memo. This compares to 75% in 1978.

2. In 5 counties less than 63% of the civil cases were pre-tried within 120 days from filing of the first pre-trial memo. The five counties were: Androscoggin, 38.6%; Cumberland, 40.3%; Penobscot 54.8%; Waldo, 59.5%; and Washington, 56.3%.

3. Statewide in 1979, 25% of the civil cases reached jury trial within 120 days of pre-trial conference, and 43% of the cases reached jury trial within 180 days of pre-trial conference. This compares to 48% and 68% figures in 1978.

4. In six counties, less than 25% of the civil cases reached jury trial within 120 days of pre-trial conference. The six counties, Androscoggin, Aroostook, Kennebec, Oxford, Piscataquis, and Waldo all had no jury trials in 120 days or less. In eight counties, less than 43% of the civil cases reached jury trials within 180 days of pre-trial conference. The eight counties were Androscoggin, 0%; Aroostook, 25%; Kennebec, 14.2%; Oxford, 0%; Piscataquis, 0%; Waldo, 16.6%; Washington, 33%; and York 28.5%.

5. Statewide in 1979, 51% of civil cases reached jury waived trial within 120 days of pre-trial conference, and 68% of the cases reached jury waived trial within 180 days. This compares to 25% and 46% figures in 1978.

6. In six counties less than 50% of the civil cases reached jury waived trial within 120 days of pre-trial conference. The six counties were: Androscoggin, 15.3%; Aroostook, 42.8%; Hancock, 42.8%; Knox, 42.8%; Penobscot, 44% and Waldo, 14.2%. In nine counties less than 68% of the civil cases reached jury waived trial within 180 days of pre-trial conference. The nine counties were: Androscoggin, 46.1%; Aroostook, 42.8%; Cumberland, 60%; Hancock, 67.1%; Knox, 57.1%; Penobscot, 56%; Piscataquis, 66%; Sagadahoc, 50%; and Waldo, 28.5%.

SUPERIOR COURT

CRIMINAL CASE STATISTICS

Tables 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 show and compare the Superior Court criminal filings, dispositions and trials during 1978 and 1979.

TABLE 6

This table shows the number of criminal cases pending at the beginning of 1979, statewide and by county.

Analysis of this table reveals:

1. The number of criminal cases pending at the beginning of 1979 increased 4% over the number pending at the beginning of 1978. This 4% increase is very small when compared to the 58% increase in pending cases that was reported from the beginning of 1977 to the beginning of 1978. In 1979, seven of the counties reported a decrease in pending cases at the beginning of the year. The largest decrease was the 28% figure reported in Hancock County. Nine counties reported an increase in pending cases at the beginning of the year. The largest increases were reported in Washington County, 48%; Somerset County, 42%; and Androscoggin County, 29%.

2. Statewide, criminal case filings increased 10% in 1979. This compares to the 5% decrease reported in 1978 and the 23% increase reported in 1977.

3. In ten counties the filings increased. The largest increases were reported in Penobscot County, 54%; and Somerset County, 35%. The largest decrease in filings was reported in Sagadahoc County with a 12% decrease.

4. Statewide, criminal dispositions decreased by 1% in 1979. This compares to an 11% increase in 1978.

5. The criminal dispositions decreased in twelve of the counties. The largest decreases were in Waldo County, 41%; Oxford County, 31%; and Sagadahoc County, 22%. The largest increases in dispositions were recorded in Somerset County with 47% and Penobscot County with 26%.

6. The number of cases pending at the end of 1979 increased 28% over the number pending at the end of 1978. The counties reporting the largest increases were Waldo, 76%; York, 59%; and Penobscot, 54%.

TABLE 7.

This table shows, statewide and by county, the number of defendants charged with offenses by class of charge. Traffic offenses are listed under "Title 29," while violations of Title 12, Municipal Ordinances and Inland Fisheries and Wildlife laws are listed under "Other."

Analysis of this table reveals the following:

1. 33.8% of the defendants in the Superior Court caseload (pending and total filings and refilings) were charged with Class A, B or C crimes. This compares to the 37% figure recorded in 1978. Statewide, Class A, B, or C crimes accounted for 32% of the filings in 1979. The percentage of Class A, B, or C filings ranged from 18.4% in Somerset County to 57.5% in Androscoggin County.

2. 27.6% of the defendants (pending plus filings and refilings) were charged with D or E crimes. This compares to the 26% figure reported in 1978. Statewide, Class D and E crimes accounted for 26.5% of the filings in 1979. The percentage of Class D and E filings ranged from 13.9% in Oxford County to 34% in Penobscot County.

3. Statewide, more defendants were charged with Title 29 offenses than any other single category. Title 29 cases represented 30% of the criminal caseload and 33.6% of the criminal filings. The percentage of Title 29 filings ranged from 17.7% in Androscoggin County to 56% in Lincoln County. Two other counties with large Title 29 filings were Franklin with 50.3% and Somerset with 43.2%.

TABLE 8

This table shows filings and dispositions for each county by type of case and includes state totals.

Analysis of this table reveals:

1. Transfers comprised 43.7% of the statewide filings in 1979. This compares to a 36% figure in 1978. Transfer cases accounted for more than half of the cases filed in four counties, Somerset, 67.6%; Aroostook, 59.9%; Franklin, 57.8%; and Lincoln, 52.9%. The lowest percentage of transfer cases filed was 23% reported in Androscoggin County.

Statewide, there was a 34% increase in transfers filed from 1978 to 1979. In comparing 1978 and 1979 transfer filings, ten counties reported an increase. The larger increases were in Penobscot County, 83%; Sagadahoc, 77%; Somerset, 76%; and Kennebec, 52%.

2. Appeals comprised 12.6% of the statewide filings in 1979. This compares to a 12.4% figure in 1978. Appeals cases comprised more than 12.6% of the filings in seven counties, Sagadahoc, 21.1%; Washington, 20%; Lincoln, 18.3%; Oxford, 17.9%; Penobscot, 17.2%; York, 14.7%; and Knox, 14.4%. Appeals comprised at least 10 percent of the filings in all counties except Somerset with 2.2% and Androscoggin with 6.9%.

Statewide, there was a 12% increase in appeals filed from 1978 to 1979. In comparing 1978 and 1979 appeal filings, an increase was reported in eight counties with the largest increases in York, 98%; Penobscot, 87%; Piscataquis, 83%; Oxford, 42%; and Waldo, 37%. The greatest decreases in appeals filings were reported in Sagadahoc, 52% and Somerset, 41%.

3. Indictments comprised 27.3% of the statewide filings in 1979. This compares to a 32.9% figure in 1978. Indictments comprised more than 28% of the filings in nine counties and were higher than 40% in three counties: Androscoggin, 55.9%; Kennebec, 41.9%; and Waldo, 41.7%. Indictments comprised less than 15% of the filings in four counties, Aroostook, 9%; Somerset, 12.6%; Lincoln, 12.9%; and Franklin 14.8%.

Statewide, there was an 8% decrease in indictments filed from 1978 to 1979. Seven counties reported an increase. The larger increases were in Waldo, 50%; Hancock, 42%; and Penobscot, 40%. The greatest decreases in indictments filed from 1978 to 1979 was Aroostook down 61%; Lincoln down 59%; Sagadahoc down 45%; and Somerset down 39%.

4. Juvenile appeals comprised one-half percent of the statewide filings in 1979. This was a 67% decrease in filings from 1978 when juvenile appeals comprised 1.8% of the filings.

TABLE 9

This table shows the number of criminal jury and jury waived trials for each county and includes state totals. In addition, the table shows the number of jury and jury waived trials as a percentage of total dispositions.

Analysis of this table reveals:

1. Statewide, 6% of all criminal dispositions were by jury trial in 1979. This compares to 7% in 1978.

2. Statewide, 2% of all criminal dispositions were by jury waived trial in 1979. This compares to 3% in 1978.

3. In 1979 there were 646 criminal trials of which 447 were jury trials and 199 were jury waived trials. This compares to 741 criminal trials of which 507 were jury and 234 jury waived in 1978.

4. Criminal jury trials averaged 1.4 days and criminal jury waived trials averaged .78 days.

TABLE 10

This table shows time lag figures for significant steps of movement of the criminal indictment and information cases through the Superior Court. This report shows the actual number of cases that fall within five time periods, 0-30 days, 31 to 60 days, 61-90 days, 91-120 days, 121 days and up. Measurements in the table are from first appearance to plea, jury trial, jury waived trial, and disposition.

Analysis of this table reveals the following:

1. In 1979, 31.9% of all indictments went from first appearance to disposition in less than 60 days and that 43.8% reached disposition in less than 90 days.

2. In 1979, 96% of all information cases went from first appearance to disposition in less than 30 days.

This table shows time lag figures for significant steps of movement of the bail review, transfer, appeal, juvenile appeals, and other criminal cases through the Superior Court.

This report shows the actual number of cases that fall within five time periods, 0-30 days, 31 to 60 days, 61-90 days, 91-120 days, and 121 days and up. Measurements in this table, unlike table 10, are from filing to first appearance, guilty plea, jury trial, jury waived trial and disposition.

Analysis of this table reveals:

1. Statewide, in 1979,26.9% of all transfers went from filing to disposition in 60 days or less and 42.3% went to disposition in 90 days or less.

2. Statewide, in 1979, 20.8% of all criminal appeals went from filing to disposition in 60 days or less and 34.8% went to disposition in 90 days or less.

3. Statewide, in 1979, 30.4% of all juvenile appeals went from filing to disposition in 60 days or less and 41.1% went to disposition in 90 days or less.

TABLE 12

This table compares the 1978 and 1979 dispositions by type of disposition. This table includes both a numerical and percentage comparison by type of disposition for each year.

Analysis of this table reveals:

1. Statewide, 31% of all criminal dispositions were by District Attorney (Rule 48(A)). This compares to 30% in 1978.

2. Dismissals by court and filed cases represented 2% of the total dispositions in 1979. This compares to a 4% total in 1978.

3. Statewide, 47% of all criminal dispositions were by plea in both 1978 and 1979.

APPENDIX III

DISTRICT COURT STATISTICS

TABLE 1

On July 1, 1978 a new statistical reporting system was implemented in the District Court. The new system counts the number of filings and dispositions by type of case. It also counts the number of cases in which a court appearance has been waived and, therefore, the case disposed without formal judicial action. In addition, the system counts the number of trials by type of case and gathers caseflow data that allows the calculation of the average number of days from request for trial to trial.

This table shows statewide District Court filings by type of case for the four fiscal years ending June 30, 1978. Percentage changes for each category and state totals are included.

An analysis of this table reveals:

1. Total District Court filings increased 15% in FY1978 compared to increases of 2% and 3% in FY 1976 and FY 1977 respectively.

2. Mental Health case filings increased 34% in FY 1978. This increase can be explained, in part, by the new statutory requirements that all mental health commitments be reviewed by the District Court on a regular basis.

3. Criminal case filings increased 19% in FY 1978.

4. Two types of cases showed a decrease in the number of filings. Small Claims filings dropped 1% in FY 1978 compared to an increase of 29% and 16% in FY 1976 and FY 1977 respectively. Reciprocal case filings decreased 84% in FY 1978. This decrease has negligible significance, however, because these cases comprise less than 1% of total District Court filings.

5. Twenty-seven of the 33 District Court divisions showed an increase in case filings in FY 1978. Case filings in nine courts increased by 20% or more in FY 1978. They were Bangor, 25%; Bath, 31%; Biddeford, 38%; Bridgton, 27%; Fort Kent, 20%; Kittery, 38%; Lincoln, 31%; Newport, 32% and Portland, 22%.

6. In six of the District Court divisions, case filings decreased in FY 1978. They were Bar Harbor, -23%; Ellsworth, -3%; Livermore Falls, -4%; Machias, -10%; Rumford, -4% and Waterville, -6%.

This table shows the number of filings and dispositions by type of case statewide and by individual District Court. It also shows the number of waivers signed statewide and by individual court locations.

The chart covers an 18 month time period. The first column covers the initial six months the current statistical reporting system was in effect, the first half of fiscal year 1978-79. The second group of figures represents filings and dispositions for the first six months of 1979; the third group covers filings and dispositions for the second half of 1979 and the final group of figures represents the totals of filings and dispositions for the CALENDAR YEAR 1979. Future annual report statistics will be directed to statewide and individual court locations on a calendar year basis.

Analysis of this information reveals:

1. A general trend in the non-criminal categories over the 18 month period showing civil cases, money judgment and divorce filings to increase by several hundred cases (8.49%; 16%; 7.23% respectively) during the first half of 1979, then decreasing very slightly (.26%; .72%; 2.62% respectively) in the second half of 1979. Small claims filings increased more than 1500 cases (19.85%) in the first half of 1979 then continued to increase nearly 150 cases more (1.5%) during the second half of 1979, a trend somewhat contrary to the other non-criminal category case filings during the time period.

2. To the contrary, a general trend in the criminal and traffic categories shows filings in juvenile cases, criminal A, B, C cases, criminal D and E cases and civil violations/traffic infractions decreasing (6.2%; 14.8%; 17.78%; 9.48% respectively) during the first half of 1979, then increasing markedly in all but one category during the second half of 1979. Juvenile, criminal A, B, C, criminal D and E and civil violations/traffic infractions increased 7.79%; 2.88%; 17.65%; 23.24% during this second half of 1979.

The exception in the criminal category is in traffic "criminal" filings with a first half increase of nearly 1200 cases (4.34%); then a decrease of more than 500 cases (1.89%) in the second half of 1979.

3. Filings in the mental health area, however, continued to decline throughout the 18 month time period. Filings dropped 125 cases (28.94%) in the first half of 1979 then continued to drop an additional 68 cases (22.15%) through the rest of 1979.

4. Trends for dispositions closely paralleled those for filings. Non-criminal dispositions generally peaked during the first half of 1979, then slowed down during the second half. Dispositions in the civil and small claims categories increased nearly 1000 cases (21.87%; 14.52% respectively) then continued to increase by several hundred cases (12.11%; 4.14% respectively) through the second half of 1979. However, dispositions for money judgments and divorce cases reached a high in the first half of 1979 (14.72%; 10.77% respectively) then declined (.51%; 9.43%) during the second half.

5. Two categories of criminal cases increased dispositions during the first half of 1979. Criminal A, B, C cases and traffic "criminal" dispositions increased (.63%; 7.61%) during the first half, then decreased (10.68%; 5.02%) during the second half. Juvenile and civil violations/infractions, however, decreased during the first half (2.31%; 12.30%) of 1979. In the second half, juvenile dispositions continued to decline an additional 4.51% while civil violations/traffic infractions increased 20.88%.

6. Mental health case dispositions followed the trend in filings with each six month period seeing a steady decline. The first half of 1979 saw a 33.6% drop in dispositions followed by an additional 7.28% drop in the number of dispositions in the second half.

Certain conclusions can be drawn: the first half of 1979 saw more filings in the non-criminal categories than in the second half, while the majority of filings for cases in the criminal categories were in the second half. Mental health filings continued to decline throughout the year.

Dispositions generally followed this same pattern, with more cases in the non-criminal categories being disposed during the first half of 1979. The second half of 1979 found a mixture of increased and decreased dispositions in the criminal categories.

Seasonal increases in traffic volume and population may account for some of these trends seen during the second half of the year. With July, August, September and perhaps October as the busy vacation/tourist season, increased traffic volume and criminal activity explain the increase in filings and dispositions for criminal and traffic related offenses.

Future statistical reporting on a calendar year basis may provide evidence to support or dispute this position.

TABLE 3

This table shows the number of dispositions by type of case, the number of trials held, trials as a percent of dispositions and the average number of days from request for trial to trial. This information is presented for each of the 33 District Court locations and begins with the statewide picture. This table covers the calendar year 1979.

Analysis of this table reveals:

1. Statewide, there were 225,994 total dispositions in District Court.

2. Statewide, there were 16,114 trials as defined within the Instruction Manual for the District Court Statistical Reporting System.[1]

3. Statewide, this means 7.13% of all dispositions statewide were resolved through the trial process.

4. Nine District Court locations were significantly higher than the stae average in their percentage of dispositions as a result of trial. They were Augusta (10.84%); Bar Harbor (15.95%); Brunswick (11.24%); Calais (11.56%); Dover-Foxcroft (11.85%); Lewiston (13.76%); Machias (16.26%); Rumford (14.48%); Waterville (10.02%).

5 Six District Court locations were significantly lower than the state average in the percentage of dispositions as a result of a trial. They were Bridgton (3.2%); Caribou (2.61%); Kittery (2.91%); Skowhegan (3.05%); Portland 3.87%).

6. In addition, three courts recorded averages of 4% or more. These were South Paris (4.26%); Van Buren (4.84%); and Wiscasset (4.88%).

7. Three courts recorded averages of 5% or more. These were Bath (5.02%); Fort Kent (5.04%) and Livermore Falls (5.10%).

Statewide, the average number of days from request for trial to trial was 50 days.

8. It took significantly longer than the statewide average to schedule cases for trial in six District Court locations. These were Augusta (94 days); Farmington (73 days); Lewiston (68 days); Madawaska (90 days); Rumford (69 days) and Skowhegan (62 days).

[1] A trial is defined as a contested hearing on the issue(s) between the involved parties. Clerks do not record the number of or time spent on hearings for contested motions that may be heard prior to the final dispositional hearing or disposition of the case.

9. Five court locations averaged less than 30 days from request for trial to trial. These included Caribou (21 days); Dover-Foxcroft (28 days); Fort Kent (13 days); Newport (29 days); Van Buren (22 days).

10. Statewide, mental health cases showed the shortest number of days (average) from request for trial to trial (11 days) and represented the greatest percentage of trials (68.35%).

11. Juvenile cases represented the second largest percentage of trials (35.83%) but were closer to the statewide average number of days from request for trial to trial (43 days).

12. Civil cases represented the greatest number of days average from request for trial to trial (75 days) with divorce cases averaging 74 days from request to trial.

13. It took 30 to 56 days from request for trial to trial in all criminal cases.

APPENDIX IV

ADMINISTRATIVE COURT STATISTICS

The Administrative Court was created by the Legislature in 1973 and is a statewide court. Prior to July 1, 1978, the Court had jurisdiciton over suspension and revocation of licenses by a specific list of executive agencies.

Effective July 1, 1978, the Legislature substantially expanded the jurisdiction of the Administrative Court. Now, other than in emergency situations, the Administrative Court has "exclusive jurisdiction upon complaint of an agency or, if the licensing agency fails or refuses to act within a reasonable time, upon complaint of the Attorney General, to revoke or suspend licenses issued by the agency, and shall have original jurisdiction upon complaint of a licensing agency to determine whether renewal or reissuance of a license of that agency may be refused.."

There are two judges of the Administrative Court: the Administrative Court Judge and the Associate Administrative Court Judge. The judges must be lawyers and are appointed by the Governor for seven year terms, with the consent of the Legislature.

With the enactment of 4 M.R.S.A. Sec. 1158, effective March 5, 1979, the Administrative Court Judges were authorized to preside at Maine District Court by assignment of the Chief Justice. Periodically, both judges have heard civil and criminal matters at District Nine in Portland. Since completion of the Administrative Court quarters at 66 Pearl Street, Portland, a steadily increasing caseload from District Nine has been disposed of at the new facility. From July 1 through December, 1979, the Administrative Court Judges spent an average of 10 days per month hearing District Court matters. Specifically, the judges spent 63 days hearing District Court cases resulting in the disposition of 69 actions. Additionally, the Administrative Court staff spent 18 days recording District Court matters.

March 31, 1980

To the Honorable Chief Justice and Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court

The Board of Overseers of the Bar respectfully submits to the Court for its consideration and for the information of the legal profession and the public this report on the activities of the Board during the first year of its operation. Actually this report will cover the period from the inception of the Board on November 1, 1978 through December 31, 1979 and with some comments on the 1980 budget and registration. The audit by independent accountants required by the Maine Bar Rules will be reported on shortly, the examination having been concluded.

The Board held its first meeting on November 1, 1978, two other meetings in November 1978, three meetings in December 1978 and thereafter one meeting in each month, except that the August meeting was omitted. The early meetings were given over to organization, the preparation of the 1979 budget, the hiring of a Bar Counsel, Executive Secretary and clerical assistants, obtaining quarters for an office and the appointment of the members of the Grievance Commission and the Fee Arbitration Commission.

During the year the Board has used its best efforts to discharge its responsibility both for supervising the registration of all lawyers admitted to the practice of law in the State and maintaining adequate records thereof and for carrying out the disciplinary aspect of its responsibilities.

The Board is becoming more familiar with its work which gradually becomes less exacting as to demands on its time and more repetitive and familiar. Nevertheless, the operation is still in its initial stages and many steps have been properly taken to improve the mechanism of the operation as well as to discharge as effectively as possible the Board's responsibilities as established by the Court. Moreover, as the Commissions continue to function on more and more cases, the duties of Bar Counsel, both before the Grievance Commission and the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, multiply.

Personnel

The Board has engaged the services of Michael E. Barr, Esquire as Bar Counsel and those of Mary C. Johnson as Executive Secretary, both of whom impress the Board as being very capable in their respective positions. The remainder of the staff consists of two clerical assistants, Peggy Nichols and Janet Sanderson, who discharge their duties in a most satisfactory manner. Mrs. Johnson also serves as Secretary to the Fee Arbitration Commission.

Members of the Grievance Commission and the Fee Arbitration Commission appointed by the Board, perform their duties and deal with many matters referred to them for hearing. The Bar owes the members of these Commissions a debt of gratitude for their willingness to take on, without compensation, the unpleasant task of considering complaints against lawyers and dealing with such complaints with full regard for the public interest. The system would not be able to function were it not for their uncompensated service. It is clear to the Board that the members of the Commissions have uniformly approached their difficult tasks with a resolution to do a fair and impartial job in the interest of the public and profession alike. The Board expresses its gratitude to them for their work. G. Curtis Webber, Esquire serves as the head of our Ethics Sub-committee whose work is invaluable. A list of the members of the Ethics Sub-committee of the Grievance Commission is attached and marked "Exhibit A."

At this point I would like to make a personal observation with reference to the lay members of the Board and the Commissions. It is my opinion that they bring considerable insight and ability to their positions and contribute greatly to the performance of the work.

A list of those presently serving as members of the Commissions is appended to this report in the hope that their services may be known to the Court and perhaps to the general public. See Appendices "B" and "C".

Volume of Work

Attached hereto is a breakdown of 149 formal complaints showing the disposition made or pending, together with percentages of total complaints by County, size of law office and age of practitions. Appendix "D".

A total of 37 fee arbitration matters were received. Of these 33 have been closed and the remaining 4 have been set for hearing in April 1980.

2088 lawyers were registered in 1979. So far in 1980, 2052 have been registered. An attached schedule shows the breakdown for 1980 registrations. Appendix "E".

Leasehold

As of January 1, 1979 the Board, as Lessee, entered into a lease with Associated General Contractors of Maine, Inc. whereby the Board acquired a leasehold interest in property on the first floor of the A.G.C. Office Building, so-called, located on Whitten Road in Augusta, Maine for an initial term of one year from January 13, 1979 with three five year option terms. The option for the first five year renewal term has been exercised. The space thus far has proven to be adequate and very satisfactory. The basic annual rent for the current term is $7,464.00 with a usual escalation clause for taxes, fuel, insurance, etc. Before the Board found a home, it met on several occasions at the office of the Maine Bar Association in Augusta. We appreciate the kind courtesy of that organization and express our thanks to the Association and its officers.

Miscellaneous

The Board has adopted the American Bar Retirement Association (ABRA) Master Money Purchase Pension Plan and also has the benefit of the Maine Bar Insurance Trust for Medical and Life coverage for its staff. The Board acknowledges with sincere appreciation the kind and generous assistance of David S. Wakelin, Esquire, of the law firm of Pierce, Atwood, Scribner, Allen, Smith & Lancaster in helping us set up the Pension Plan.

Careful planning and frugality have enabled us to complete the first year with a surplus of $37,388.14. The conservative anticipation of this prompted the Board to prepare its budget for 1980 so as to be able to reduce the basic fee from $100 to $85. It may not be feasible to attempt to reduce this fee further in 1981, but the present expectation is that the $85 fee may be retained for at least one more year.

The Board of Examiners has transferred its records and administrative work to the Board upon a contractual arrangement whereby the Board will be compensated for the cost of the administrative services performed, now estimated to be between $6,000 and $7,000 per year.

Respectfully submitted,

Franklin G. Hinckley
Chairman

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND DISABILITY

COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND DISABILITY

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT TO THE SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

The Committee on Judicial Responsibility and Disability was established by order of the Supreme Judicial Court of Maine on July 5, 1978. The Committee is authorized to receive and investigate complaints of judicial misconduct and disability, to hold hearings, and to make a report to the Court with a recommendation of action by the Court if the Committee determines:

> that the person under investigation has been convicted of a crime, the nature of which casts into doubt his continued willingness to conform his conduct to the Code of Judicial Conduct as applicable or . . . that in fact the person has violated the Code as applicable and that the violation is of a serious nature so as to warrant formal disciplinary action [or] . . . that the person under investigation is suffering from a disability which materially affects his or her ability to perform his or her duties as a judge..... [1]

The standards applied by the Committee (other than in cases of alleged disability) are contained in the Maine Code of Judicial Conduct adopted and promulgated by the Court to be applicable to justices of the Supreme Judicial and Superior Courts and judges of the District Court effective April 1, 1974.[2] The Code was made applicable to judges of the Administrative Court by order effective July 1, 1978,[3] and to active retired justices and judges by order effective December 5, 1978.[4] Canons 1, 2, and 3 of the Code were made applicable to judges of the Probate Courts by order effective December 15, 1978.[5] The Code is thus applicable to all judges of the State of Maine.

The work of the Committee on Judicial Responsibility and Disability is not intended to interfere with or be substitute for the judicial process. It is the courts' function alone to decide cases and controversies in litigation. Some parties to all litigation will be disappointed. Disagreement with the results cannot be converted into claims of misconduct against the presiding judge. The Committee is not a substitute for appeal. It is not a court of one more last resort. The Committee's mandate is narrow. It can inquire only into matters of alleged judicial misconduct as defined by the Code of Judicial Conduct and certain matters of alleged disability.

1. Order of July 5, 1978, Establishment of Committee on Judicial Responsibility and Disability, paras. 9, 10, 385-88 A. 2d LX (1978) amended by order of August 21, 1978, 389-91 A.2d XXI (1978).

2. 313-19 A. 2d XXXVII (1974).

3. 385-88 A. 2d LIX (1978).

4. Unreported.

5. 392-95 A. 2d LVI (1978).

This report is submitted to the Court pursuant to rule 7 of the Rules of the Committee. Six complaints received in 1978 were pending before the Committee on January 1, 1979. Investigations were being conducted in four of those matters. During the calendar year 1979 the Committee received an additional twenty-one complaints, Three of those complaints were pending and under investigation as of January 1, 1980, and are not otherwise referred to in this report. In 1979 the Committee rendered a final decision in twenty-four matters. Eight of those matters were decided after investigation, and sixteen were disposed of without investigation. In no case did the Committee find sufficient basis for making a report to this Court with a recommendation of disciplinary action.

The largest group of complaints involved rulings and decisions by trial judges that were alleged to have been erroneous. Eleven such complaints were received (all from persons who had been losing parties in litigation), and all were dismissed. They complained that the judge should not have believed the testimony given by witnesses on the opposing side, that the judge was biased (but without any fact supporting such a claim), that the outcome of the case was wrong, or that the instructions given to the jury were erroneous. These complaints often reflected a deep emotional commitment to the litigation and an abiding belief that an injustice had occurred. Six of the eleven complaints arose from divorce, custody, and related litigation in which decisions have an intimate personal effect on the parties. All of these complaints were dismissed because they were outside the scope of the Committee's authority. The Committee is not a substitute for appeal. It cannot interfere in the judicial process. It cannot grant judicial remedies or correct alleged errors.

A related complaint, which alleged favoritism and prejudice and contained a suggestion of an improper discussion between the judge and an opposing lawyer, was dismissed when it became apparent that the complainant was solely attempting to influence the outcome of pending litigation.

Two complaints alleged that judges were too lenient in handling criminal cases and imposing sentence. Both complaints were dismissed because they do not constitute complaints of judicial misconduct. One of the courts' functions is to render a judgment in some criminal cases and impose sentences within the boundaries established by the legislature. A judge cannot be accused of misconduct for failing to convict a person charged with an offense, for selecting an appropriate sentence, or for exercising the discretion which he alone has a responsibility to exercise.

A related complaint alleged that a judge had dismissed several criminal complaints in a feud with prosecutors. This complaint was investigated because it was alleged that the judge had acted for reasons extraneous to his responsibility. After a complete investigation the Committee found that the judge had dismissed the complaints upon proper motion for want of prosecution. The procedure was regular. The judge had a substantial basis for his action. The dismissals were without prejudice to their being reinstituted by the State; no harm was suffered by the public; and no irregularity occurred. The complaint was dismissed as being unfounded.

Three complaints alleged that the judge was biased. One was dismissed without investigation because the complainant, after repeated requests, failed to provide any substantiating information. A second was dismissed because a limited investigation revealed only information contrary to the claim and the complainant failed to respond to the efforts of the Committee's investigator to reach him for substantiating facts. The third was thoroughly investigated. The complaint alleged that the judge who had presided at a criminal trial and imposed a sentence upon the defendant, a relative of the complainant, had been actuated by bias against the complainant. The complaint itself revealed that the complainant had engaged in systematic efforts to harass, threaten, and insult the judge for a period of seven years on account of litigation long since concluded. The Committee's investigation determined that the judge became aware of the defendant's relationship to the complainant some time during the trial, and was then confronted with the question of whether to disqualify himself and abort the trial. The judge was not asked to disqualify himself, and all interested persons, except the complainant, were satisfied that the judge had acted fairly and impartially. The Committee found that the judge did in fact act with utter impartiality and in no way acted improperly. Accordingly, the complaint was dismissed as being without any foundation in fact.

One complaint alleged extreme delay in rendering a decison. In the judgment of the Committee one instance of delay, even though considerable, does not constitute judicial misconduct. The complaint was thus dismissed. This decision does not mean that inordinate delay in rendering judgment would never give rise to disciplinary actions. Should a number of decisions be subject to inordinate delay by one judge, they might well in aggregate rise to the level of a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct of sufficient substantiality to require a formal report to the Court.

One other complaint alleged delay in rendering a decision by a judge of the probate court. This complaint concerned matters which had occurred prior to December 15, 1978, when the first three canons of the Code of Judicial Conduct were made applicable to probate judges, and, for that reason, the complaint had to be dismissed. (Similarly, one complaint was dismissed which complained of a judge's conduct as an attorney before being appointed to the bench.)

One complaint made allegations concerning a judge's demeanor and control over proceedings which could be construed as alleging either misconduct or disability. The Committee examined a transcript of all proceedings and conducted an investigation which included interviews with litigants, attorneys, and witnesses. The allegations of the complaint were without corroboration in the record and were denied by other persons present except the complainants, who were the losing parties to the litigation. The record refuted any allegation that the judge was not fully in command of the proceedings, aware of the testimony given and grounds for objections, and courteous to the litigants and their lawyers. The complaint contained additional matters (essentially alleged errors in the litigation) which were outside the Committee's authority. The complaint was dismissed as being without foundation in fact.

A complainant stated he was given a summons by a game warden to appear in district court to answer a certain charge. Two days prior to the date set for hearing the clerk of the district court, having been erroneously informed that the complainant had waived his right to a hearing, issued a notice on a Maine district court form which gave notice of the fine but which had the appearance of being a judgment of conviction. The complainant believed he had been convicted without a hearing. He wrote to the district court concerning the assessment of a fine before the hearing date but mainly arguing the merits of his defense to the charge. The district court judge entered a default against the complainant for failure to appear and authorized issuance of a warrant of arrest. The Committee found that this matter did not involve any misconduct on the part of the judge and, accordingly, dismissed the complaint.

Finally, the Committee received a complaint from municipal officials alleging a large number of various irregularities in the procedures followed by a district court judge. Many of the allegations did not constitute charges of judicial misconduct. Those allegations which were within the Committee's authority were thoroughly investigated by counsel retained by the Committee. As to several of the matters investigated, the results of the investigation conclusively refuted any claim of misconduct, including a number of matters in which the judge was not even involved. As to the remaining issues, charges of alleged misconduct were drawn, and a formal hearing was held on the record at which both the Committee and the judge were represented by counsel. The majority of the charges were found to be unsupported by the evidence. But in three instances the Committee found that the judge had violated the Code of Judicial Conduct: twice by accepting guilty pleas over the telephone in violation of Canon 3B(1) and by disposing of a case on an ex parte representation in violation of Canon 3A(4). The record essentially revealed deficiencies in court administration and procedure. The Committee concluded that formal disciplinary action was not warranted. Procedures in the district courts are not as clearly defined as may be and, where defined, not always followed. The volume of business may well be a substantial cause. The Committee believes that it would be conducive toward ensuring regularity of procedures if all district court proceedings were held on the record, and future complaints may thus be avoided.

By order of the Court, the Committee's work is conducted under a rule of confidentiality. The Committee's function is analogous to that of a grand jury. The Committee does not render a final judgment on disciplinary action; it can initiate disciplinary proceedings by recommending action to the Court. All proceedings before the Committee are thus confidential. No information may be published by the Committee except by order of the Court. The Committee request that the Court cause this report to be made public.

Respectfully submitted,
